

CABANA OUTDOOR DAYBED DEALER REFERENCE GUIDE

CABANACOAST® Outdoor Daybeds are double-wide chaise lounges, and the Apex, Chorus, Lakeview and Brighton collections include square daybeds. (The Bimini, Chorus and Louvre collections include round daybeds.)

OUTDOOR DAYBEDS

Each of the square daybeds have their own model number:

	Apex Daybed: model number 30069
	Brighton Daybed: model number 9334
	Chorus Daybed: model number 8303
	Lakeview Daybed: model number 30186

All of these four square daybeds fit inside the Lakeview Cabana frame (model number: 30186-2.) This frame is designed for use with any of these four square daybeds, and is not designed for use as a free-standing cabana. It can be ordered WITH any one of these square daybeds, or as a separate product to combine with a customer's existing Square Apex, Brighton, Chorus or Lakeview Daybed.

CABANA OUTDOOR DAYBEDS

When ordering a square daybed WITH the Lakeview Cabana Daybed frame, there is a combined model number:

 A square daybed with a black frame and white canopy, set on a sandy beach with the ocean in the background.	Apex Cabana Daybed: model number 30069-3
 A square daybed with a black frame and white canopy, shown from a side angle.	Brighton Cabana Daybed: model number 9334-3
 A square daybed with a black frame and white canopy, shown from a side angle.	Lakeview Cabana Daybed: model number 30186-3

When any of these model numbers are ordered, both the Daybed and the Cabana Daybed frame with drapery will be shipped.

PLEASE NOTE:

The Cabana Daybed drapery is available in 1 fabric selection only: Sunbrella® (Drapery Weight) Shadow Snow 51000 (Grade A); a sample can be found in your current fabric book.

If your Cabana Outdoor Daybed will be installed in a windy location, VELCRO Straps are available to tether the drapery poles to the frame as shown below. Please refer to the Tethering Guide for additional information.

MUSE CABANA DAYBED

The NEW for 2023 Muse Outdoor Cabana Daybed is an integral cabana daybed, meaning that the daybed is mounted within the cabana frame and cannot be used as a standalone daybed.

The Muse Cabana Daybed collection features 12 different shade and privacy choices, including sling roof, slatted panel roof or back, and multiple drapery options. Please refer to the Muse Cabana Daybed Dealer Reference Guide for additional information.
